President forms committee to prevent conscription of minors

Nay Pyi Taw, May 13

The President's Office has formed a Committee for the Prevention of Recruitment of Minors in Military Service with the release of Notification 17/2016, dated 5 May. The committee includes 12 members, including the deputy attorney-general as secretary. The committee will be chaired by the Union Minister for Defence. The committee is set to be tasked with 12 points of action, including discharging minors from military service or basic military training to reunite them with their families and enhancing cooperation with UN agencies, including UNICEF and the UNDP.
